

Title: Summer Teaching Artist of Visual Arts

Supervisor: Program Director

Dates: 07.21.17 - 08.04.17

In an initiative to give school-aged children a uniquely inspiring and progressive Arts centered education, this Harlem based program gives its participants an exceptional education with hands-on training guided by world-class Teaching Artists. We are looking forward to providing a fun-filled summer curated by world-class teaching artists where children explore the world around them, self-express through music, art, movement, build community through sharing, and learn through play.

Qualifications:

- Minimum 18 years of age
- At least 1 years of prior camp or education experience preferred
- Education required: Bachelor's degree in visual arts field or related. Graduate work preferred.
- Certification in First Aid and CPR is a plus
- Possess strong listening, communication, and writing skills
- Interest, knowledge, and skills in a variety of performing arts programs
- Lover of people, specifically children
- Possess an amicable disposition, work well with others

Specific Responsibilities:

- Create a curriculum and lesson plans to introduce drawing and painting to children ages 5-13.
- Create tools to measure impact of lessons taught.
- Participate in camp activities to facilitate group bonding
- Evaluate fellow Teaching Artists
- Serve as substitute for Program Director during their time off
- Perform additional duties as assigned

Remuneration:

Contract. Based upon experience.

Please forward your cover letter, resume, links to your work and three references to info.kaleidoscopearts@gmail.com. Please write Kaleidoscope and the position title in the subject header. The cover letter should answer the following: discuss how education centered around creativity can serve to integrate the main subjects of math, science, history and language arts in school and whether or not you see the value of an interdisciplinary education. Limit your response to 500 words.